

WE ARE HIRING

Qualification & Validation Technician

For more than 25 years, ATP-CGPharm Group has been supporting clients in the Life Science Industry.

<https://atp-cgpharm-group.com/careers/>

4051 Basel / Switzerland

Your Role

- Jointly responsible for the planning and execution of environmental monitoring activities (e.g. cleanrooms, compressed gases, compressed air, purified water, water for injection, pure steam)
- Elaboration of environmental monitoring protocols and reports
- Jointly responsible for the planning and execution of other sampling activities (raw materials ...)
- Jointly responsible for the planning and execution of qualification activities (e.g. IQ/OQ/PQ)
- Participate in elaboration of qualification plans and reports
- Jointly responsible for the planning and execution of validation activities (e.g. cleaning validation, process validation)
- May participate in elaboration of validation plans and reports
- Responsible for keeping sampling and measurement equipment in good working order and for following calibration intervals

Your Role

- Responsible for ordering consumables (Plates, tubes, vials...)
- Responsible for the transfer of the test samples to the corresponding QC laboratories (client internal labs or contract labs)
- Participate in the elaboration or revision of SOPs or operating instructions
- Participate in the treatment of deviations and the management of corrective and preventive action plans (CAPA)
- Participate in the treatment of Change Control
- Reports any issues related to qualification, validation, environmental monitoring and other sampling & testing activities to the Head Monitoring & Testing
- Maintains compliance with ATP-CGPharm Group's and the client's Quality Management System, where applicable

About you

- University degree in QC/QA
- First experience in environmental monitoring and/or qualification and/or validation and/or QC in life sciences industry
- Excellent knowledge of IT tools (Word, Excel, Powerpoint... ), and experience with LIMS software not necessary but much appreciated
- Very good English skills (reading/writing/speaking) and if possible, French and German skills
- GxP experience